

Zmartify
THE ZMART SOLUTION

Visual identity guide

App launch kit for iPhone, iPad, Android and web

Brand direction

A digital-first sibling identity aligned with CarbEurope

Zmartify keeps its own recognizable mark and darker operational tone, while sharing CarbEurope's blue/cyan energy, rounded geometry, generous space and Poppins-inspired typography. The result is a family resemblance without making the app look like a corporate sub-page.

Color system

Use the darker navy for structure; reserve bright colors for action and system feedback

Navy

Typography and spacing

Poppins is the reference direction from CarbEurope; use the closest available platform font when needed

Poppins Bold / Semibold

Poppins Regular for supporting copy and labels

Recommended UI rhythm

Base unit: 4 px | Common spacing: 8 / 12 / 16 / 24 / 32 px | Corner radius: 12-16 px

Clear, calm, practical

Short labels. One action per view. High contrast.
Avoid decorative noise.

App icon and favicon

The mark must remain legible at tiny sizes; the wordmark is intentionally omitted from the icon

1024 px / store master

180 px / iOS

192 px / Android

Web: use favicon-32.png or favicon-48.png. Android adaptive icon: keep the mark inside the supplied safe area; do not add text.

Usage rules

Keep the system recognizable across app UI, launch materials and web

- Keep clear space around the full lockup; use the width of the “E” in Zmartify as a practical minimum.
- Do not stretch, skew, recolor, add shadows or place the full lockup on a busy image.
- Use the symbol alone for app icons, avatars and favicon. Use the full lockup in launch screens, websites and documents.
- Prefer navy/deep navy surfaces with cyan-teal-green accents. Ensure text meets platform contrast requirements.
- The CarbEurope palette is a relationship cue, not a replacement for Zmartify’s own mark or product voice.
